

Châteauneuf-du-Pape Cuvée du QUET 2016

The estate

Christine and Daniel CHAUSSY, brother and sister, are the 5th generation to lead Mas de Boislauzon. Today, the sixth has joined them. The domaine, located in Orange, in the north of the appellation Châteauneuf-du-Pape, covers 11 acres of Châteauneuf-du-Pape, 19 acres in Côtes du Rhône Villages and 2 acres in Vin de France. All vines have been organically farmed since 2012.

Grape varieties

80% Grenache ; 20% Mourvèdre

Vineyard

Vines are grown in clay soils, covered with rounded pebbles.

Vinification

The harvest is hand-picked, meticulously sorted and 100% destemmed. It's a traditional vinification with temperature control. No yeast added. This wine is aged in barrels and tank.

Tasting

This wine is a powerful wine, balanced, silky tannins and a beautiful length in the mouth.

Service

It's enjoyed with grilled meat, a spicy dish, cheese... Serving temperature 18°.

Distinctions

98/100 Jeb DUNNUCK (August 2018)

96/100 The Wine Cellar Insider (Jeff Leve)

15,5/20 Jancis ROBINSON (November 2017)

91/100 Robert PARKER (August 2018)

Available in magnum.

