

Châteauneuf-du-Pape Famille CHAUSSY 2020

The estate

Christine and Daniel CHAUSSY, brother and sister, are the 5th generation to lead Mas de Boislauzon. Today, the sixth has joined them. The estate, located in Orange, in the north of the appellation Chateauneuf-du-Pape, covers 11 acres of Châteauneuf-du-Pape, 19 acres in Côtes du Rhône Villages and 2 acres in Vin de France. All vines have been organically farmed since 2012.

Grapes varieties

50% Grenache; 30% Mourvèdre; 20% Syrah

Vineyard

Vines are grown in clay soils, covered with ronded pebbles.

Area

Palestor and Clos Saint-Pierre.

Vinification

The harvest is hand-picked, meticulously sorted on the plot. It's a traditional vinification with temperature control. This wine is aged in a barrels and tank.

Service

It's enjoyed with grilled meat, a spicy dish, cheese...

Tasting

This wine is a powerful wine, balanced, silky tannins and a beautiful length in the mouth.

Distinctions

88-91/100 Jeb Dunnuck (Novembre 2021)

This is a selection of two areas: Palestor and Clos Saint-Pierre
